ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Alexa R. Shello

Associate

Ms. Shello is an Associate and a member of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice area.

Alexa focuses her practice on litigation, with experience defending a variety of local and international corporations in complex matters as well as various political subdivisions in Western Pennsylvania. She has represented clients in both state and federal court, handling cases from initial strategy through discovery and motion practice.

She has developed and executed litigation strategies across a range of sophisticated disputes, achieving successful results through effective dispositive motion practice, which often eliminates the need for trial. Her work includes drafting and arguing motions, managing fact development, and ensuring clients are well-positioned throughout the litigation process.

Ms. Shello is committed to providing thorough, efficient, and practical representation tailored to each client's goals.
